

Why Are You Calling?

Anth

Yeah

I admit we had our fun but we both know that it's over
And when it ends in flames, you never get time for closure
And that's probably the reason it's hard to keep my composure
I swear you're driving me crazy, you do it without a chauffeur
Had me up in a panic, cannot seem to understand it
Told you all of my traumas, you used it to your advantage
You cut my heart right open then used my blood for your canvas
Why are the prettiest women the ones who do the most damage?
I can't stand it
It's so tragic how we ended but it's clear that you're evil
Yeah, I swear you're my addiction, you're my poison, you're lethal
Romeo and Juliet, baby you know that I need you
Because our love was like a movie but there won't be a sequel

Baby, tell me why are you calling me?
When you said that you want no part of me
When you know you're making it hard for me
But it's way too late for apologies

So tell me why are you calling now?
When you told me that you don't want me now
When I heard that you got somebody now
So tell me why are you calling now?
No, no

Yeah

I see you got a new man
Those subliminal's at dinner with someone else's hand
Who the hell you think you're fooling?
It's all part of your plan
But why you acting like I never even gave you a chance?
'Cause girl, I gave you a chance, but yet, you blew it
And whenever you're given a chance, you shouldn't lose it
And to this day, I don't understand what made me do it
I don't know what I was doing, I guess love can make you stupid
For real

Baby, tell me why are you calling me?
When you said that you want no part of me
When you know you're making it hard for me
But it's way too late for apologies

So tell me why are you calling now?
When you told me that you don't want me now
When I heard that you got somebody now
So tell me why are you calling now?
No, no
