Anth

Yeah

Okay

Another year, another holiday, that you won't be here next to me

Another season came around, and I ain't put up no Christmas tree

I'd rather be home by myself, than spend this time with someone else

I hope you don't feel the way I do

I don't need a wish list

There's nothing to wish for

And I don't need no one singing carols at my door

Oh no

And I don't need a gift

No, I don't care what I do

'Cause I know this Christmas won't be the same without you

Be the same without you

And I don't wanna hear no fa-la-la's

I wonder if you'd answer if I took the time to call

I'm seeing all these different couples when I walk through the mall

I wonder if you even miss me, probably not at all

Look how we came out

Everything has changed now

I ain't ever think that your feelings would ever fade out

Nothing I can say now

Struggle every day now

Baby, yeah I swear that these holidays ain't the same now

I don't need a wish list

There's nothing to wish for

And I don't need no one singing carols at my door

Oh no

And I don't need a gift

No, I don't care what I do

'Cause I know this Christmas won't be the same without you

Be the same without you
