

Be With You

Anthem Lights

Well I think she's different, but I can't be sure
My intuition tells me I can't trust my heart anymore
She says be simple, no playing games
And I've tried to hide it but it feels like dying falling again

Oh baby, think we should slow down
This is crazy, I need you now
Baby, it's been a long time
So I'll close my eyes
I could fall in love tonight

I don't wanna be hard, I don't wanna be cold
I just wanna be with you
I don't wanna be scared, what have I got to lose?
I just wanna be with you
I'm not gonna hide, there's no way to go
I'm burning inside, I ain't know
I don't wanna be hard, I gotta be true
I just wanna be with you

I think she's special, one of a kind
It's not confidential, she's the one who's got me losing my mind
I say be honest, she says I am
I'm so insecure, I can't be sure, can't end up broken again

Oh baby, think we should slow down
This is crazy, I need you now
Baby, it's been a long time
So I'll close my eyes
I could fall in love tonight

I don't wanna be hard, I don't wanna be cold
I just wanna be with you
I don't wanna be scared, what have I got to lose?
I just wanna be with you
I'm not gonna hide, there's no way to go
I'm burning inside, I ain't know
I don't wanna be hard, I gotta be true
I just wanna be with you

You make all the walls come crashing down
All I wanna be is with you now
I can fall in love tonight, you showed me how

(2x)

I don't wanna be hard, don't wanna be cold
I just wanna be with you
I don't wanna be scared, what have I got to lose?
I just wanna be with you
I'm not gonna hide, there's no way to go
I'm burning inside, I ain't know
I don't wanna be hard, I gotta be true
I just wanna be with you
