

Painted Skies

Anthem Lights

[Joey Stamper:]

Before we are artists, or singers, or musicians, we are humans.
Trying to find meaning and purpose in this world. Learning how to love the people in our lives better every day.

[Caleb Grimm:]

We have different stories. Different hopes, dreams, experiences , and challenges. From becoming a new father to finding the per son you want to spend your life with. From fighting for your ma rriage to thrive to moving to a new city and finding your way.

[Spencer Kane:]

These are the experiences that are making us who we are. Each o ne, another brush stroke in this mosaic we call life.

[Chad Graham:]

This is our story. This is Painted Skies.
