

I've heard a thousand stories where you've came through
I'm thankful for the things you say you will do
You never turn your back but doubt is weighing on me

And I know you got a plan
But it's hard to understand it
I just need a lil reminder
You got it figured out
All is in your hands
Might be hard to comprehend
So please

Tell me now, tell me now if I'm falling
Would you rescue me
If I'm lost in the doubt and it's pouring
Would you shelter me
Fear is a liar, faith is a fighter
I gotta trust that you got all that I need
When the floors falling out underneath me
You're gonna give me wings

You're gonna give me wings
You're gonna give me wings
You're gonna give me wings
You're gonna give me

I'm 30,000 feet and keep on climbing
You got a hold of me and now I'm flying
It took a little time but you were waiting on me

And I know you got a plan
But it's hard understand it
I just need a lil reminder
You got it figured out
All is in your hands
Might be hard to comprehend
So please

Tell me now, tell me now if I'm falling
Would you rescue me
If I'm lost in the doubt and it's pouring
Would you shelter me
Fear is a liar, faith is a fighter
I gotta trust that you got all that I need
When the floors falling out underneath me
You're gonna give me wings

You're gonna give me wings
You're gonna give me wings
You're gonna give me wings
You're gonna give me

You're gonna give me
You're gonna give me
You're gonna give me
