Order of Hate

Anthenora

So many soldiers are marching on
Just follow one order
So many soldiers still marching on
Just put out disorder

Thousand people are crying aloud
They don’t know why
Thousand people crying about
Being deaf ‘n blind

No time for fear, no human tears
They are the army of unspoken disease

Empty stares, empty are their eyes
They are looking, looking for a light
Give them a spur, give them a sign
They will obey, dogs ready to bite

Give them a play, give them a God
They won’t ask, they just will go
Give them a gun, give them a thrill
They won’t ask, they’ll just kill

No time for fear, no human tears
They are the army of unspoken disease

Now they’ve lost their will ‘n their soul
Now they’re machines of war
One is the leader, one is the law
Hate for the screaming ground!

No time for fear, no human tears
They are the army of unspoken disease
