

Sometimes

Anthony Amorim

Sometimes love will break you till you burst
And sometimes you've just gotta come to terms with the fact
That someone might not love you
The same way that you love them

And sometimes everyday feels like the worst
And sometimes you've got to say "This fucking hurts"
'Cause someone out there might not make you feel as bad

And this sucks and I feel it coming for me
And I'd like to quit all this pretending
But everytime I feel the pen in my hands
You go and write another ending
Why do you tell me that you listen to my music
When you know that it's about you?
Oh my god, I'm gonna lose it

And I'm broken but I'm proud
I'm not feeling okay
And I've spoken so loud, so loud
You had to hear me say
That "I want you so bad but I'm still so close to giving up
And everything we had just feel like it was not enough"

And I really thought you wanted this
So why can't you accept
The more you push away the sooner there'll be nothing left
But I'll keep standing still
Waiting here for you
Cause sometimes when your heart is broken that's all you know how to do

Sometimes there's not enough to go around
And sometimes you end up lost before your found
And sometimes people leave you
And you don't know how to leave them

Sometimes you have to learn to make mistakes
And sometimes you have to give more than you take
Cause someday someone will show you the love that you deserve

And maybe you've moved on
I try not to think about it
My friends they always tell me
I'll get better soon but I doubt it
Why do we run in circles?
Why do you put me through this?
Why don't you love me?
Oh my god, I can't do this

I'm broken but I'm proud
I'm not feeling okay
And I've spoken so loud, so loud
You had to hear me say
That "I want you so bad but I'm still so close to giving up
And everything we had just feel like it was not enough"

And I really thought you wanted this

Why can't you just accept
The more you push away the sooner there'll be nothing left?
But I'll keep standing still
Waiting here for you
Cause sometimes when your heart is broken that's all you know how to do

Sometimes you feel love and you feel lost
And sometimes you pick up where you left off
And someday I'll be happy
And I hope that you will be too

Sometimes things are better off this way
And sometimes you have to leave cause you can't stay
And when I turn to go, I won't look back at you
Cause sometimes when your heart is broken that's just what you have to do
