

Enough

Anthony Brown & group therAPy

Don't let anybody tell you that you're not great
Or that you're not faithfully and wonderfully made
You are special, a designer's original
It doesn't matter what they say or what they do
All that matters is how you feel about you
You're amazing the moment that you think so

So don't you dare say that it's over
Until God says that it's done
You still have a life to live
You still have a race to run
And with each step, keep moving forward
And He'll be there for everyone
And whatever you do, don't forget

You have enough
God gave you enough
You are enough, mmh
And you will get through this
You have enough
God gave you enough
You are enough, whoa
And you will get through

Every single detail about you
Your smile, your personality, and looks too
Is what makes you such a gift
To those who love you, mmh
By the time that this is done I hope you realize
How incredible you are in God's eyes
When he made you, I can tell he really took his time

And don't you dare say that it's over
Until God says that it's done
You still have a life to live
You still have a race to run
And with each step, keep moving forward
And He'll be there for everyone
And whatever you do, don't forget

You have enough
God gave you enough, whoa yeah
You are enough, yeah
And you will get through this
You have enough
God gave you enough, yeah He did
You are enough, oh
And the truth is

You've always been enough
You have every reason
To hold your head high, yeah
You will never know what's possible
If you never try
And it doesn't matter who's against you
Once you realize who's on your side
I am here to remind you

Right here to remind you

You have enough
God gave you enough, yes he did
You are enough, yeah yeah
And you will get through this
You have enough, yeah
God gave you enough, yes He did
You are more than enough, oh
And you will get through
I promise, you will get through
Through this

You're gonna be fine, yeah
Better than fine
Get ready to shine
You will get through this
