

Incomplete

Anthony Callea

I miss you, I miss the way we were
I need you, I need you back in my life
I want you, I want you back, the way it was
I can't have you, you closed that door

It's my fault, I wanted something more
I'm selfish and I'm torn
I thought I could have it all

I'm incomplete
I stand here naked from you
I'm incomplete
I'm broken on the floor
I did this to me, I did this to you
I did this to everyone we knew
Left incomplete

You were mine until I betrayed you
I was yours, you were so proud of me
I hurt you, deceived you in every way
I love you, but it's too late

It's not your fault, you deserve to be adored
You're selfless, and I'm flawed
I know he can give you more

I'm incomplete
I stand here naked from you
I'm incomplete
I'm broken on the floor
I did this to me, I did this to you
I did this to everyone we knew
Left incomplete

I'm incomplete
I stand here naked from you
I'm incomplete
I'm broken on the floor
I did this to me, I did this to you
I did this to everyone we knew
