

Only One

Anthony Callea

I don't see me waking for another day
My thoughts are killing me, I'm in pain
What's left to lose, when you can't explain
My reflection shows me, I'm insane

How did I get so out of control
Turned into a person I don't know
Tired of crying every time I wake
Realisation hits me in the face

Am I the only one
Can't be the only one
Am I the only one
I need to find someone

Help, it's a word that seems so hard to face
Stuck between two walls, I'm not safe
Failure is a game and I've come first place
My scars, they want to dictate my way

How did I get so out of control
Turned into a person I don't know
Tired of crying every time I wake
Realisation hits me in the face

Am I the only one
Can't be the only one
Am I the only one
I need to find someone

Am I the only one
Can't be the only one
Am I the only one
I need to find someone
Am I the only one
Can't be the only one
Am I the only one
I need to find someone
