

Inevitable

Anthony David

I feel like I've been, looked over before
I feel like I've been, locked out and ignored
Sometimes I have been, little bit unsure
But all the time I've been, good enough for more
Oh, I feel like somethin's tryna keep me out
Trick my confidence, feel my mind with doubt
But when I get pushed, that's when I push back
Every action gets a reaction, you only make it

(Harder) You only makin' me work harder
(Better) That means I'm only gettin' better
(Stronger) And I'm only gettin' stronger
It's inevitable
(Smarter) Takin' my time and workin' smarter
(Harder) That means I'm only comin' harder
(Longer) It's okay if it takes, a little longer
It's inevitable

I feel like I've been, misunderstood
No, I don't complain, maybe I should Sure I haven't been, everything I could
But all the time I've been, bona fide, oh-whoa
I, come in, for my righteous place
I don't have the right, not to be great
But what they don't know is, how much I love the chase
You can't call it work when it's passion, you only make it

You can't stop me
Won't out work me
Can't out think me
Won't discourage me
You can't turn me
You can't move me
What don't kill me
Only makes me stronger
