Fighting For Me

Anthony Evans

When I first met you I must admit
I was fighting and losing
But I wouldn't tell You cause
I knew that You'd take over
I wanted to undo all my mess
So it looked like I did it on purpose
You had my solution
But I knew that You'd take over

I wouldn't let you in cause
I'd have to begin
To let it go
And I held onto my pride
Cause I wanted to be in control
But then You showed me

You're fighting for me
Now I don't have to anymore
You're love is holding me
When I can't hold on anymore
My heart was breaking
But it doesn't have to anymore
I don't deserve it but you're showing me I'm worth
I'm worth fighting for
Oh, oh, oh
I'm worth fighting for

I'm glad I chose to do
Not what I felt but what was true
I finally did it cause I knew that you'd take over
I'm grateful now I see
This pain is the reason I believe
I think it's incredible
How Your loss could win me over

I wanna let you in cause
I need to begin to let it go
And for my pride I apologize
Cause I know
You wanted to show me

You're fighting for me
Now I don't have to anymore
You're love is holding me
When I can't hold on anymore
My heart was breaking
But it doesn't have to anymore
I don't deserve it but you're showing me I'm worth
I'm worth fighting for
Oh, oh, oh

The size of the fight
Is measure by the prize that will be won
Ayy, ayy
You showed me what I'm worth
When You poured out Your love

And now I know
Now I know
So when my battle comes
My faith is strong because I'm not alone

You're fighting for me
Now I don't have to anymore
You're love holds me
My heart was breaking
But it doesn't have to anymore
I don't deserve it but you've shown me what
You've shown me what I'm worth

You're fighting for me
Now I don't have to anymore
My heart was breaking
But it doesn't have to anymore
I don't deserve it but you're showing me I'm worth
Oh, oh, oh
