

Rejoice

Anthony Evans

Broken I come
Laying down every burden I carry
Bringing all to the one who's tender touch brings healing
We cry out in our weakness
Holding on to your promise

Rejoice and be glad for great is your reward
Rejoice and be glad for the kingdom of heaven is yours

We stand on the rock
Though we face the valley of sorrow
Trusting only in You cause only You hold all our tomorrows
Lord I call out your name
And I hear you say (you say)

Rejoice Rejoice Rejoice the kingdom of heaven is yours
Hallejulah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah You are God
