

See You Again

Anthony Evans

I've seen darkness, shattered by light
I've seen joy break, after the night
I want to see it again

I've seen tragic, and hopeless days
Turn to stories, of amazing grace
I want to see it again!

Ohh come Lord, like a rushing wind
We are desperate, for Your presence
Revive us, by Your spirit within
We want to see You again
See You again!

I've seen laughter, conquer the tears
I've seen strength rise, to persevere
I want to see it again

I've seen bodies, ruined and frail
Rise in power, completely healed
I want to see it again!

Oh-oh-ohh come Lord, like a rushing wind
We are desperate, for Your presence
Revive us, by Your spirit within
We want to see You again
See You again!

Ohh come Lord, like a rushing wind
We are desperate, for Your presence
Revive us, by Your spirit within
We want to see You again
See You again!

We remember all the great things You have done
We believe that greater things are still to come

We remember all the great things You have done
We believe that greater things are still to come

We remember all the great things You have done
And we believe that greater things are still to come
We remember all the great things You have done
We believe that greater things are still to come

We remember all the great things You have done
We believe that greater things are still to come
We remember all the great things You have done
We believe that greater things are still to come
We remember all the great things You have done
We believe that greater things are still to come
We remember all the great things You have done
We believe that greater things are still to come
Oh-oh-ohh

Ohh come Lord, like a rushing wind
We are desperate, for Your presence

Revive us, by Your spirit within
We want to see You again
See You again

We want to see You again
See You again
