

Something Beautiful

Anthony Evans

Unworthy
That's the understatement of the century
Undeserving
Of every single thing that you've done for me
I keep asking why you never give up
I keep asking why you love me so much

[CHORUS:]
I try to run away but you keep pursuing me
I try hiding but you keep uncovering
All the pain all the shame
All the mistakes that I've made
Then you take me make me
Something beautiful
Something beautiful

Resurrection
I hear you telling me to rise again
Imperfection
Only you can make me a new man
I can testify you never give up
I'm amazed that I'm the one that you love

[CHORUS]

I ran as far as I could Never knowing your love would
Chase so hard after me
Until my eyes would see
There's nothing there's no one
That could separate me from your love
Your love

[CHORUS]
