Changing Shape

Anthony Green

Telling a lie in the evergreen state
Searching for any place
It wasn't a loss
You couldn't bear the cost
Nothing was there for us

As we change shape
I'll keep you covered
And just to save face
I'll keep you here
In the heart of darkness

Carving a way in path points erased
Baby just left behind
Don't even look
In case you want to leave
What will become of you

As we change shapes
I'll keep you covered
And just to save face
I'll keep you here
In the heart of darkness

In the heart of darkness
In the heart of darkness
In the heart of darkness
