Never Letting Go

Anthony Hamilton

Oh love you're like heaven to my eyes Each and every time I see you Young love so powerful It's so intoxicating, I'm all in, got my tail steady spinning Don't know where I'm ending I found a heart that I believe in I found a heart that I was needing

Oh love, I love the way you pacify me Keep me forever smiling Heaven must have sent a better angel It's hard to take it all in We make love, and I feel that we are one You are my completion I found a heart that I believe in I found a heart that I believe in I found a heart that I believed in And I'm never letting go - love
