

Nobody Else

Anthony Hamilton

Ohhhh

You are all I want, and need, and more

Baby, I know it's obvious

That the only thing I want is you (you)

Not to mention, your undivided attention

And all of the things you do, ohhh

I don't want nobody else but you

You're the only one I want, it's true

I don't want nobody else but you

You're all I need (you're all I need)

I long to feel your gentle touch

A heavy sensation I love so much

Without a doubt in my mind

Baby, you are so fine, hey

You're all I want, and more

I don't nobody else but you, girl

You're the one that rocks my world, girl

Ayy, hey, yeah

I don't want nobody else but you

You're the only one I want, it's true

I don't want nobody else but you

You're all I need (you're all I need)

I don't want nobody else but you

You're the only one I want, it's true

I don't want nobody else but you

You're all I need (you're all I need)

I don't want nobody else

I just gotta you for myself

I want you, baby

I need you lady

Baby, don't wanna be without you

I can't go on without your lovin'

Your lovin'

Your lo-ov-ov-ov-ove

I don't want nobody else but you

You're the only one I want, it's true

I don't want nobody else but you

You're all I need, you're all I need

I don't want nobody else but you

You're the only one I want, it's true

I don't want nobody else but you

You're all I need, you're all I need

I don't want nobody else but you

You're the only one I want, it's true

I don't want no...
