

Spend Some Time

Anthony Hamilton

Just the other day, I met this girl from around the way
She slowly approached and talked to me (and she say)
"I know it's not ladylike, but I've been keepin' you in my eyesight
And I really like just what I see," and she say

"Baby, baby
I know it might sound crazy
I just wanna spend some time
To your relax your mind (do you really wanna)
Spend some time with you
Is what I really wanna do
I just wanna spend some time, just unwind
Relax your mind, oh baby"

I find it hard it hard to believe
That she would even come and talk to me
For after all, I'm just a little old lonely man (a lonely man)
I cannot tell no lie, this girl has even caught my eye
And the things that she said when she said 'em
They really did turn me on

"Boy, don't you really see, just what you do to me
You arouse my curiosity (ooh, that's what you said to me)
Your style, I really like your smile, and I know it might sound crazy
But I really wanna get to know you, baby"

"Baby, baby
I know it might sound crazy
I just wanna spend some time
To your relax your mind
Spend some time with you
Is what I really wanna do
I just wanna spend some time, just unwind
Relax your mind, oh baby
Baby, baby
I know it might sound crazy
I just wanna spend some time
To your relax your mind
Spend some time with you
Is what I really wanna do
I just wanna spend some time, just unwind
Relax your mind, oh baby
Baby, baby
I know it might sound crazy
I just wanna spend some time
To your relax your mind (do you really wanna)
Spend some time with you
Is what I really wanna do
I just wanna spend some time, just unwind
Relax your mind, oh baby
Baby, baby
I know it might sound crazy
I just wanna spend some time
To your relax your mind (do you really wanna)
Spend some time with you
Is what I really wanna do
I just wanna spend some time, just unwind

Relax your mind, oh baby

Baby, baby

Ohhhhhh
