The ultimate experience in visual sound
Anthony Hamilton, "XTC" the album

Heartbeats and hips swingin' and blues people, all in one room
Givin' birth to a new proverb and it was cool
You see in Harlem, there's a different way of listenin' to music
There are places where laughter gives birth to the night
A place between rent parties and $5 dinners
There are places where laughter can clean yo' soul and
Wash away memories of deferred dreams
You check this function fo' yo'self, why?
'Cause once you enter, you'll never know what hit ya

Every time that you're here with me
It feels like heaven, total XTC
Every time you're here with me
It feels like heaven, total XTC

I can't believe when we're together
It feels like XTC
Twice as nice, as a king in paradise (paradise)
I'm heaven emotionally

Every time that you're here with me
It feels like heaven, total XTC (feels like heaven and XTC)
Every time you're here with me (every time, baby)
It feels like heaven, total XTC
