

Silver Song

Anthony Phillips

Dear Friend,
When you are gone,
There'll always be this song
To remind you of where you once belonged.
Though for you fly way, your face will bless the day.
Safe road through stormy weather, let me hear you say:

The sun will shine again.
New dawns will rise again.
And we'll be together, till the end.

Oh baby, what am I supposed to do?
Oh baby, when times get rough,
The going's hard,
I'll still be here for you.

The sun will shine again.
New dawns will rise again.
And we'll be together, till the end.
