

Blindside

Anthony Russo

Blindside

Oh-oh

Never saw it coming, guess she hit me at the right time

Yeah

Hindsight

Oh-oh

Seen one too many good things go in my life, yeah

So I wanna get to know you, hold you

Learning your ways, its been so long since somebody came and made me feel alive

So used to being right

No love ain't easy, I can relate you've had your share of could've been great, I know what it's like, I know that's life

So, won't you come on over, we can talk and roll some up

Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, then suddenly my weekend plans became irrelevant, yeah, yeah

Oh, its a mess I'm obsessed with a little pretty thing and she never had a man to connect till we met

But the love of all things was the least of things I'd expect

But we can't always see what's next, oh, no, no, no, no

What's next?
