Oouu
Oouu, ayy
Oou, ayy
I just wanna ride out
I'm just gon' ride this intro out
It's one of those yeah know
Yeah

I've been feeling the vibe
I've been feeling complete
Looking down at the ground
Like is it touching my feet
They want a piece of the pie
I'd be cool with some peace
Got the wind in my face
Sunshine on my cheek
Nephew just turned one
He as cute as can be
Can't wait to take him to Disney
Whole trips on me
Taking flights from the city
Yeah they know me at Lambert
Never question myself
But still come up with answers
I've been taken off work
Money's starting to roll
All this bread that we've burned
That's why I'm making a toast
But the numbers been growing
Hottest stock on the polls
But I'm the only investor so I keep the control
You got me mixed up with some puppets that you see stage
This is raw, uncut
We doing our own thing
Playing musical chairs, I finally found my seat
Everything sounding sweet

That's why I keep the drink coming till the AM
Muddy water in my main hand
I swear I'm too clean they got nothing on me
I ain't made it big enough if they ain't coming for me
Yeah I'm living on a high won't come down
I get anything I want now
Spread those wings baby run free
I'm finally feeling complete

Finally over my ex
Not about to get sappy
But it's the first time I'm happy
Seeing her happy
Yeah I guess I've matured
Guess the boy growing up
Just tryna put it together before I start blowing up
Yeah you know it's the kid
I need to upgrade my mattress
I've been dreaming too big

I'm talking Cali kings
Got some homies in Cali
Doing Cali things
Shout out to J-Stone
Yeah we came along way from rolling weed up in Greystone
All love to my day ones
I got angels around me
RIP Chris Lenzen
Hope the speakers be bumping enough to hear them in heaven
I'm still coming to terms with you leaving so quick
If God was playing the draft he got a first round pick
Don't waste any time
Life is short as it is
Every morning's a blessing
Every night is a gift

That's why I keep the drink coming till the AM
Muddy water in my main hand
Yeah I'm living on a high won't come down
Spread those wings baby run free
I'm finally feeling complete

I try to respond to every comment I get Cause I know real soon it's gonna be harder to give
Just know thats not why I'm here
I'm not after the fame
I'm just doing my thang
Then I'm passing the flame
Brucey roll one up
Baby pass me the flame
It's been a hell of a year
A lot has changed
But I gotta stay down
Oouu I gotta stay down
Got to give it to God
He's in charge of the plan
I'm in charge of the cards
That he dealt in my hand
I ain't playing it safe
Man that shit is a risk
Cause by sixty you safe
But did you ever live
Yeah we can get older but we don't have to get old
A world made of clay
I'm just fitting my mold
I'm doing this now
Cause the time is always right
I ain't bout to die an unlived life

That's why I keep the drink coming till the AM
Muddy water in my main hand
Yeah I'm living on a high won't come down
Spread those wings baby run free
I'm finally feeling complete
