

Say I Won't

Anthony Russo

I see you moving, got a birds eye view
When you looked the other way I think I knew what you were doing
Now I got a reason to get out of this seat
Talking 'bout where you gon' go when I leave
And I don't really drink but let's open up this bottle
Pass it back and forth till the damn things hollow
By now you prolly know where you go I'ma follow
I'm sold right now, I don't care about tomorrow, like

My friends keep saying that I'm out my mind
All of these feelings and I don't, I don't know why
I must've known you in another life
Nothin' stoppin' me, I could drop a knee
And wife you up right now

Say I won't
(Throw some money on it) huh
Say I won't
Say...

Damn lil missy, you so pretty
Body like a 50, hottest in the city
Prolly gonna need to back up when they see us
'Cause everybody want ya, but I'm the one that need ya
So ain't nobody makin' me leave
Cause baby you the one that I been waitin' to meet
I'm a lover not a fighter but I'm willin' to be
'Cause I want, 'cause I want you, yeah

My friends keep saying that I'm out my mind (out my mind)
All of these feelings and I don't, I don't know why
I must've known you in another life
Nothin' stoppin' me, I could drop a knee
And wife you up right now

Say I won't
(Throw some money on it) huh
Say I won't
Say...

I'm ready girl
Say I won't
Say I won't
I'll give you the world
Say I won't
Say I won't

Whoa, whoa
A little bit funky now
Feeling strong
I need ya long term, baby, won't you come around?
And be that one
I'm cashing in
That's the end
Never have to look again

I'm ready girl
Say I won't
Say I won't
Say I won't
Say I won't
