

Timeless

Anthony Russo

I'm tied up in my loose ends
While you fuck off with your new friends
I kinda hate you, but I'll admit
What we had was timeless

But we forgot to time it
Old rivalries die in light of the new ones
But I still got the scars from the place that I grew up
Kids with credit cards
Addicted to xanny bars
They crash cars and parents buy them new ones

Living for a sign
I'm waiting to see
But what's it gonna take to satisfy?
Well my I underestimated
What you gotta give up to get some baby

I thought that I lost
Tell me what did it cost ya?

I'm tied up in my loose ends
While you fuck off with your new friends
I kinda hate you, but I'll admit
What we had was timeless
But we forgot to time it

Trust me
Baby, there are worse things
Than whatever I did

Same view but your own a coastline
I'm out on an island

I thought that I lost
(I thought I really lost you)
Tell me what did it cost ya?

I'm tied up in my loose ends
While you fuck off with your new friends
I kinda hate you, but I'll admit
What we had was timeless
But we forgot to time it

What we had was timeless
But we forgot to time it
