

Heavens Horses

Anthony Smith

In this life theres just a few things
That your heart can always count on
So when I say I'll never leave you
It means I'll always love you babe from now on
And if a gun horn should take me early
You dont have to worry, it wont be long

I'll come back on heavens horses
Crash those gates
And Lord I'll ride
They'll say I'll burn for crossing over
But Hell cant hold back a love like mine

Last night I dreamt my heart stopped beating
Tried my best to hold on to you
But angels dragged me away screaming:
"Let me go, my life aint through"

Thru streets of gold I met my maker
Said: "please forgive what Im 'bout to do"

Im going back on heaves horses
Crash those gates
And Lord I'll ride
They'll say I'll burn for crossing over
But Hell cant hold back a love like mine

I'll come back on heavens horses
Crash those gates
And Lord I'll ride
They'll say I'll burn for crossing over
But Hell cant hold back a love like mine
No Hell cant hold back a love like mine
