Now It's Dark

In dreams I can rule your life With me nothing's ever right Sing for me up on a stage Keep your mind trapped in a cage I'm you man I'm what you need Dance with me but never lead One deep breath will set me free Don't you fuckin' look at me You know that I am...

One fuckin' well dressed man !

Now it's dark, but I can see Don't you fuckin' look at me Now it's dark, your gonna be Exactly what I want to see Now it's dark, Mommy Don't you fuckin' look at me

A sensation Of elation Intoxication Now it's dark

A candy coated existence Underneath is decadence What was hidden you have found Made it your own battleground Pretty, pretty, don't say please Don't you fuckin' look at me You know that I am...

One fuckin' well dressed man !

Now it's dark, but I can see Don't you fuckin' look at me Now it's dark, your gonna be Exactly what I want to see Now it's dark, Mommy Don't you fuckin' look at me

A sensation Of elation Intoxication Now it's dark

I'll send you a love letter Straight from the bottom of my heart You'll be fucked forever The candy coated clown's done his part

I'm your man I'm what you need Dance with me but never lead One deep breath will set me free Don't you fuckin' look at me You know that I am...

Anthrax

One fuckin' well dressed man ! Now it's dark, but I can see Don't you fuckin' look at me Now it's dark, your gonna be Exactly what I want to see Now it's dark, Mommy Don't you fuckin' look at me A sensation

Of elation Intoxication Now it's dark Now it's dark

Now it's dark
