

This Battle Chose Us

Anthrax

You give them Hell
Straight to the chin
If you can't win
Their hearts and minds
On the first try
Up and say aye!
AYE!
They'll listen

Fires are raging and the sirens scream
And your pathetic life has run out of road
If you were offered eternity
Would it slip through your fingers to wicked to hold?
Rebel
Backslider
Reach higher
You give them Hell
You give them

Hell this ain't no warning
You give'em hell because you must
It's a long hard road we're walking
Because this battle chose us
This battle chose us, this battle chose us

A gang of blood
And by killing so distilling
A simple plan
Never settle our true mettle
Yeah!
They'll listen
Fires are raging and the sirens scream
And your pathetic life has run out of road
If you were offered eternity
Would it slip through your fingers to wicked to hold?
Rebel
Backslider
Reach higher
You give them Hell
You give them

Hell this ain't no warning
You give'em hell because you must
It's a long hard road we're walking
Because this battle chose us
This battle chose us, this battle chose us

Hell, you give them Hell

You can't choose your battles, you can't choose your battles, this battle chose us

You give'em Hell
This battle chose us, you can't choose your battles
