

Fabled World

Anti-Flag

We live in a fabled world
of dreaming boys
and wide-eyes girls Where precious few get a fair start

These times can break you
These times can leave you Torn apart

This story starts with genocide Slavery those terrorized

Families cultures
torn apart
This ugly truth
only the start

And it's a white washed
The founding act
Revolution or contract?
To subjugate to torture
to abuse

(For the few)

We live in a fabled world
of terror day and night
All hidden in plain sight

We live in a fabled world
Where the poor and the weak
are pawns for profit's sake

Lock up mass incarcerate
The new Jim crow
The new slave trade
If doctor king
were here today He'd fight for much more than a dream

And you should go sign up Join the fight
the rich sleep
while you kill tonight Love thy enemy
as yourself
as you carpet bomb
him to hell

We live in a fabled world
of terror day and night

We live in a fabled world

We live in a fabled world
a corporatistic killing field Where fascist profits are a lock

These times can break you
Torn apart

We live in a fabled world
of terror day and night

We live in a fabled world

We live in a fabled world
We live in a fabled world

These times can break you
Torn apart
