

Low Expectations

Anti-Flag

Burn it down once burn it down again
Are you my enemy or my friend?
So sick of all the bullshit and the posers who have got something to prove
These days I'll leave those thoughts to the likes of someone new

Living a life of low expectations
Living a life of no salvation
Living a life of low expectations
Living a lie

This place, it sucks, and I don't give a fuck
Empty laughs and hollow eyes

Trading bullshit half truth lies
You're sadistic and arrogant and deceptively eloquent, that's you
I roll my eyes, checkout out.
I'm done. I'm through.

Living a life of low expectations
Living a life of no salvation
Living a life of low expectations
Living a lie

I know that this is going nowhere
It's hard, it's hard for me to fucking care - I don't
Con artists leading fools
Sheep sleeping with the wolves
I gladly leave that all to you

Living a life of low expectations
Living a life of no salvation
Living a life of low expectations
Living a lie

Living a life of low expectations
Living a life of no salvation
Living a life of no salvation
