

Cut throat and don't look back
As if gifted by the zodiac
With the key that's gonna unlock my own path
Catastrophe is guaranteed again
'Cause your payoff is with a moral sin
Well, somehow, that idea always got under my skin

But you never got into my head
You never got into my head

Attack after attack
When living in this nightmare is a total laugh
I never, ever, ever
Never, ever, ever
And when the wolves attack
There ain't no ground that I'm ever giving back
I never, ever, ever
Never, ever, ever

Much like a poison kiss
Bittersweet, infamous
The villain's gift comes with a hitch
Slick and pretty with a warm embrace
Behind the veil there is a sacrifice
The time will come when you don't wanna pay that price

And they never got into my head
No, they never got into my head

Attack after attack
When living in this nightmare is a total laugh
I never, ever, ever
Never, ever, ever
And when the wolves attack
There ain't no ground that I'm ever giving back
I never, ever, ever
Never, ever, ever

All the struggles of the world make me hate you evermore
All the struggles of the world make me hate you (Make me hate you)
All the beauty of the world makes me hate you evermore
All the beauty of the world makes me hate you (Makes me hate you)
And I hate you
And when the wolves attack
There ain't no ground I'm giving back

Attack after attack
When living in this nightmare is a fucking laugh
I never, ever, ever
Never, ever, ever
And when the wolves attack
There ain't no ground that I'm ever giving back
I never, ever, ever
Never, ever, ever

And when the wolves attack

You better fucking know it
And when the wolves attack
There ain't no ground I'm ever giving back
