

Unbreakable

Anti-Flag

When I get knocked down I get back up again, yeah
Backed by my family and my friends, yeah

A vicious culture leaves us lost in life
Fuelled on anger, fuelled on spite
Watch the phoenix risin' up
This ain't no fucking joke

Unbreakable
Unbreakable, today
Unbreakable
In every single way

No, don't let them back you against the wall, yeah
And make you feel like you're nothing, nothing at all

No, we're not broken and we don't scare
Keep your acclaim because we don't care
What doesn't kill us now
Will lead us back from Hell

Unbreakable
Unbreakable, today
Unbreakable
In every single way
Unbreakable
Ready to face the world
Unbreakable
And I'm ready to feel
To feel the sharp shock of the phoenix risin'

Rising out of the east
Rising with the sun
And the moment you realize
That nothing can keep you down
Hard times come and go
Roll with the punches
Everything they throw
Look sharp and tell yourself
You're gonna make it through

Unbreakable
Unbreakable, today
Unbreakable
I'm never gonna change

Unbreakable
Unbreakable, today
Unbreakable
In every single way
Unbreakable
It's time to face the world
Unbreakable
And I'm ready to feel
