

Go Pogo!

Antidote

Spikes up full of energy wanna have some fun
Punks and skins are everywhere I start a run
I accelerate and lift up I'll end up black and blue
But I'm in the mood for a pogo so that's what I'm gonna do

My jaw feels like it's broken because I smashed on the floor
I got myself together, gotta get some more
I've got to go up and down I jump back in the crowd
Fuck I love the pogo
I like it fast and loud, punk and proud!
