

one step forward

Antidote

We had a squat for over 20 years
So many people put in blood, sweat and tears
We built an alternative for many things in town
But it wasn't conform council rules, so they tore it down

And what has come to replace it all?
Office buildings and a big mall
It's all about business, it turned this city grey
The rat race has taken all colours away