

Slowmotion

Antidote

Life in the wheels of power
In slowmotion is killing me
Promises given, bigger than life
Laughter, despite corridor every rite

Abusing the smaller with eyes of might
The helpless watching with gaze of fright
Heads of power are hiding the evidence
Making you guilty, can't defend

Go ahead, break my illusions
Rape my visions, be so vicious
Do your duty and stop my clock
Twist the arm, make me mock

The wheel, it's turning
The time, it's crawling
In slowmotion we are falling
So, so, slowmotion
So, so, slowmotion

What's the measure of your wealth
First hole in a black leather belt?
In your eyes of greed and despite
We're just a piece of black light

The wheel, it's turning
The time, it's crawling
In slowmotion we are falling
So, so, slowmotion
So, so, slowmotion
