

She'll Learn

Antifreeze

I've got a band, it's O.K.
I've got a girl, she steps on me she always tells me, "everything alright" she tells me I stand tall, I have all of the might

In my mind, I can see her face turn, when she's with all of her friends
she sets her trust on fire to burn, now she's taking a lesson, she will learn

I've got some friends, the're O.K
I've got a girl, i think she wants on me she always tells my friends everythings alright she tells her friends she wants me to F O D

I wanna know, why won't she do this to me?
I want her to learn, i want her to get rid of me
