Antimatter

Pull the cover from your face
And blow the terms away
Realign the cage with the world
One callous rearrange
And heavens gone again
Anachronistic colours on the wind

And from a call to arms
A soldier is on the march
Satisfied that on the field
There's nothing breathing
But stirring ash remains
Gone but not erased
For here am I still fighting on my own

It's not the same
Been tearing me apart
All hands are playing out the silence in your heart
The camera said
It's time to call it off
Retreat as fear creates a cycle
As fear creates a cycle
As fear creates

I could blow your tears away
But it would make no difference
It's regardless of the cause
And I feel that contracts here are from some other war
And pride is in this dream

It's not the same
Been tearing me apart
All hands are playing out the silence in your heart
The camera said
It's time to call it off
As fear creates a cycle
As fear creates a cycle
As fear creates
As fear creates a cycle
As fear creates

Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(As fear creates a cycle)
Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(As fear creates)
Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(As fear creates a cycle)
Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(As fear creates)
(I am no one)
Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(I am no one)

Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(I am no one)
Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(I am no one)
Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(I am no one)
Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
(I am no one)
Did you just effortlessly change
Or were you always this cold?
