

Quintessence of Suffering

Antropofagus

Right after night torture continues unabated to rape my skin
Chained by a pure senso of sadism
Dissonant noises echo in my mind...
Endlessly!
Walls of putrid flesh define my unholy path

Immersed in my guts
I continue my path with a cruel sense of "abyss"
Cutting what's good in me
I follow the warmth of my veins
"O Lord, where's the macabre way?"

Dropped from the fumes of mercury
The impure spirits lives inside this frame
No one can ever tell this descent into the entrails...

I see darkness from my wounds
All this in unhealthy, but it is...
The quintessence of Suffering for my new death.

I came back without mercy
My resurrection is a vomit of wrath
Transported by a monstrous wave of brutality
Lifeless / Pureless
The purified stomach recets an Hellspawn
A new form of evil addicted of terror
It's nihilism personified on flesh & bones!

Immersed in my guts
I continue my path with a cruel sense of "abyss"
Cutting what's good in me
I follow the warmth of my veins...

Forces of darkness... Embrace me!
