

Lightskin Beatle

AntsLive

First things first I'm half great half amazing
Say I'm next up, when she ask my occupation
Part time famous on the road to being A-list
Wake up and chase it, my lifestyle is basic Nike tech
Cuttin through my city like a razor blade
I been out in Tokyo stepping in some bathing ape
I smoke the pain away biscotti on a day to day
All these bad habits got my baby tryna change my ways
I call her bestie but she ain't my bestie
Jackie Chan or Jet Li li I kick it like it's messi
We not even blood but that's my brother like it's drake and Josh
I ain't got a lidge 9-5 but we ain't baking off
Get it then Invest it back in music tryna make it prof
Still I'm yet to even break even
Why you think I stay scheming
Why you think we ain't even 3 on my teeth that's white gold and it stay gleaming

They calling me family but bro that ain't my people
Surrounded by fake love I swear this games lethal
Stepping in a black prada suit I'm looking regal
I feel like a black James Bond or one lightskin beatle
Push to the pedal to the metal Vin Diesel
Tunnel vision looking like the eye of the needle
Feel it in the air like I'm Beanie Sigel
I like a black James Bond or one lightskin beatle

Ever since I drop my shoulder like zinedine
I been having bigger dreams of me up in them limousines
I take in everything listen when there's people talking
So I could really spell it out for you Stephen Hawkins
I swear I'm like raheem or Marcus
I turn a 7 to a 9 that's when I leave the barbers
Bukayo if I saka
I'll be moving on to Charlotte
Young black belligerent Hide your keys hide your daughters
The upgrade is imminent
The same way I need the breathe I need to keep it diligent
Same way she bitter but she Sweeter than some cinnamon
Fortune flavours dividends
Me and mine got equity to split between the businessnesses
Go Get it how you living it
People always ask AntsLive what you bringing in
And I don't to tell the truth I'd rather keep it 100 when I'm speaking to the youth
Bossed around or bossed up
Which one are you?

They calling me family but bro that ain't my people
Surrounded by fake love I swear this games lethal
Stepping in a black prada suit I'm looking regal
I feel like a black James Bond or one lightskin beatle
Push to the pedal to the metal Vin diesel
Tunnel vision looking like the eye of the needle
Feel it in the air like I'm Beanie Sigel
I like a black James Bond or one lightskin beatle
