

One Man

AntsLive

I used to jump on the Northern line
With a 3.5, that's a pungent smell
Type beats and my notes app open
I got dreams tryna buss myself

I just link Chloe on Park Road
Damn, I think I love this girl
I told her that I got trust issues
True say, I don't trust myself

Family first, I put the family first
Old plate manual, slap it in first then skrt
I'm tryna mash work
It's funny-back then if it's a Friday night
I'm probably burss or worse

I'm on the stage, and I flopped my bars
I didn't rehearse
First time smoking loud, gang, I'm prang
First time bagging up
Now it's all on my hands

I'm going home sad like
"When's my pockets gonna expand?"
I'm looking at bro like
"We gotta put that work in, money soon land"

Them man need them a hundred man
Just to make them a hundred bands
But I done it just man
Pulling up and the V truck ram', gang
But I coulda rolled just man

Overseas with shawty, I come back tan
I feel like a different man
I just popped corner shop
And couple of fans there know who I am

I wanna do that made-me-a-million dance
I need a milli' advance
I been catching flights and driving cars
Now I'm tryna buy this yard

Baby, we only got one life
Go ahead, shake some ass
All I ask, take me as I am
Don't judge me by the past

I got so much clothes
Gotta give them away
There ain't no space in the wardrobe
I can't take no for an answer
I'm sticking my toe in when the door close

I gotta give thanks to mum
'Cause she had my back when all the bros don't Every dog has its day

And right now, I found my mojo

Them man need them a hundred man
Just to make them a hundred bands
But I done it just man
Pulling up and the V truck ram', gang
But I coulda rolled just man

Overseas with shawty, I come back tan
I feel like a different man
I just popped corner shop
And couple of fans there know who I am

Them man need them a hundred man
Just to make them a hundred bands
But I done it just man
Pulling up and the V truck ram', gang
But I coulda rolled just man

Overseas with shawty, I come back tan
I feel like a different man
I just popped corner shop
And couple of fans there know who I am
