

Heartbroken

Anvil

Psychological cost when dealing with loss
The emptiness is hard to bare
Feeling the pain can drive one insane
The real proof to know you care

When you say goodbye the last tear you cry
The time will never come soon
Right from the start a broken heart
Your soul is left in ruin
Left in ruin

Heartbroken when your love is going down
Heartbroken when your love is going down
Heartbroken when your love is going, going down

The eternal strife within one's life
Comes from what you loose
Have the belief that from the grief
It's not for you to choose
Not for you to choose

Heartbroken when your love is going down
Heartbroken when your love is going down
Heartbroken when your love is going
Love is going, love is going
Down
