

Someone to Hate

Anvil

Divisive influence dominates ones soul
To look for the difference, the focus and the goal
Finding the faults and looking to see bad
To incite confrontation, arguments to be had

Social distortion, in congruence to blame
Murdering your neighbor, the pity and the shame
Revenge or vengeance, doesn't matter the choice
Polarized vision, you only have just one voice

Someone to hate (Someone to hate)
Someone to hate, don't matter who
Someone to hate (Someone to hate)
Someone to hate and you'll do

The beast and its nature are damned for eternity
What will be the future there is no certainty

Technical advancement made on the backs of war
Medical experiments lay dead on the killing floor
Destructive philosophy in ruin and despair
Down a swirling drain, try to stop it if, if you dare

Someone to hate (Someone to hate)
Someone to hate, don't matter who
Someone to hate (Someone to hate)
Someone to hate and you'll do
Someone to hate (Someone to hate)
Someone to hate, don't matter who
Someone to hate (Someone to hate)
Someone to hate and I hate you too
