

Counting Sheep

Anxious

Lately I leave my mind to trouble
I made a pact to keep you
But you're just my problem
Okay if you still wanna sleep in
One more tomorrow cheapened
It was nice to meet then

What better place to hide
Til every minute goes
From morning to night
Soft and sweet

Are you sleeping off all the things that I said?
Counting sheep in sour-sweet indifference?
Sour-sweet indifference?

Lately I leave my mind to trouble
I made a pact to keep you
But you're just my problem

Are you sleeping off all the things that I said?
Counting sheep in sour-sweet indifference?
Sour-sweet indifference

Hard to make it out of the sheets of your bed
Counting sheep in soursweet indifference
Sour-sweet indifference

One two three four five six
Drown your shame as time skips
One two three four five six
Drown your shame as time skips
One two three four five six
Drown your shame as time skips
One two three four five six
Drown your shame as time skips
I can't change the story as (One two three four five six)
I'm burying you in your womb (Drown your shame as time skips)

Ah ah ah are you sleeping off all the things that I said?
Counting sheep in sour-sweet indifference?
Hard to make it out of the sheets of your bed
Counting sheep in soursweet indifference
Sour-sweet indifference
