

Goodbye

Anxious

And today is just another day
But not for you, for me
And today I can't think
'Cause the thought of you it haunts me

And I wish I could say goodbye to you
And I wish I knew
And I wish you were here smiling next to me
But I know

And it's times like this I wish I believed
In something greater but not for me
For you, I don't deserve an afterlife
It's all for you

And I wish I could say goodbye to you
And I wish I knew
And I wish you were here smiling next to me
But I know that will never be

And I wish I could say goodbye to you
And I wish I knew
And I wish you were here smiling next to me
But I know that will never be

And I love you
And I needed you
And I know that you needed me too
I'm just like you, just like you
