

Speechless

Anxious

Please talk to me
I can't pull words off my chest
I've learned by heart how you violently
Smile at my awkward attempts

You left me speechless
Yeah, you left me a mess

I trip at the thought that you believe
You'd want another safe bet
Why would you try and put up with me
When I'm so heavy handed?

You, you left me speechless
Yeah you left me a mess
Yeah you, you left me speechless
Yeah you left me a mess

And I'm waiting, I'll be lonely
If you go knowing that you're all I need
But I'm no one, and I feel empty
And you'll go knowing that you're all I need
