

Another Life

Any Given Sin

I'll find another life
Somewhere on the other side

Fight to climb the spire
To reach the funeral pyre
Where plans and schemes
And hopes and dreams
Lay on the fire

And so becomes the world
A clouded string of pearls
As trumpets ring
And choirs sing
Of lost believers

But I feel the power inside
A force that fails to hide
From shattered dreams and lies

Is what I've owed repaid

You can break me down
The way it is
I'll find another life
Somewhere on the other side
You can break me down
The pain, it ends
I'll shine another light
Somewhere on the other side

(I'll shine)

Familiar are the wounds
So often licked too soon
As pages turned
And lessons learned
Are all but fleeting

But then there shines a light
A beacon in the night
To call you home
To take your throne
You lost believer

But I feel the power inside
A force that fails to hide
From shattered dreams and lies

Is what I've owed repaid

You can break me down
The way it is
I'll find another life
Somewhere on the other side
You can break me down
The pain, it ends

Somewhere on the other side

(I'll shine another...

I'll find, I'll find
I'll shine, I'll shine

You can break me down
The way it is
You can break me down
The pain, it ends

I'll shine another light
I'll find, I'll find another life
Yeah!
I'll find, I'll find
