

Calm Before The Storm

Any Given Sin

I don't give up
I don't wave white flags
Never surrender
No quarter to be had
If I said it
That I meant it
You better believe
I'm making no apologies

I am the fire
Relentless undying survivor
I am the fire
Ready or not, seek shelter in the calm before the storm
The calm before the storm

Blowing it up
'Cause I can't hold back
Never enough
Till there's nothing left to have
Pushing the limit
Coming relentless
You better believe
I'm making no apologies

I am the fire
Relentless undying survivor
I am the fire
Ready or not, seek shelter in the calm before the storm

(All my life)
The calm before the storm
(All my life)
(All my life)

Wake me up when I'm done yeah
If it's not impossible yeah
Wake me up when I'm done yeah
If it's not impossible
I must be unstoppable

Judge me by the enemies I've made
Trust me, some days gonna come someday
No regrets 'cause I don't hesitate
Nothing to lose, nothing to gain
But we gotta play, gotta play the game

(We gotta play, we gotta play, we gotta play, we gotta play)

I am the fire
Relentless undying survivor
I am the fire
Ready or not, seek shelter in the calm before the storm
Seek shelter in the calm before the storm
