

Follow You

Any Given Sin

I can't defend it
I left you all alone
Regret is no disguise
It's like a flame set inside of your mind

But I could not replace
Your image I just can't erase
I hide from my mistake
So long

I should have followed you
I just licked my wounds
All I feel is the fire now
And nothing's ever gonna put me out
These things I can't undo
So now I burn for you
And nothing's gonna put me out
Nothing's gonna put me out

I wanted to mend it
But I couldn't make the call
It comes as no surprise
That my heart couldn't make up my mind

But I could not replace
Your image I just can't erase
I hide from my mistake
So long

I should have followed you
I just licked my wounds
All I feel is the fire now
And nothing's ever gonna put me out
These things I can't undo
So now I burn for you
And nothing's gonna put me out
Nothing's gonna put me out

I can't defend it
I left you all alone
Regret is no disguise
It's like a flame set inside of your mind

But I could not replace
Your image I just can't erase
I hide from my mistake
So long

I should have followed you
I just licked my wounds
All I feel is the fire now
And nothing's ever gonna put me out
These things I can't undo
So now I burn for you
