

Insidious

Any Given Sin

I think the well is running dry
Never a word without a lie
Still you fail to surrender
Everything's gone now, everything's gone
Not a victim but playing one
Still too blind to see the sun
And you fail to remember
Everything's gone now, everything's gone

I... have nowhere left to crawl inside

Shattered hearts still breaking
Like the world you're fading, into dust
You are insidious

Broke down in tragedy
Like a distant memory
Can you defend the offender
Everything's gone now, everything's gone
And the wolf puts on his wool
For the flock it seeks to call
Another flame for the tinder
Everything's gone now, everything's gone

I... have nowhere left to run and hide

Shattered hearts still breaking
Like the world you're fading, into dust
You are insidious
Sew your seeds that poison
Shade and choke the choice in, all of us
You are insidious

Shattered hearts still breaking
Like the world you're fading, into dust
You are insidious
Sew your seeds that poison
Shade and choke the choice in, all of us
You are insidious

I think the well is running dry
Never a word without a lie
Still you fail to surrender
Everything's gone... gone
