

Still Sinking

Any Given Sin

I don't walk alone for the silence
I don't walk alone 'cause I can't keep pace
It's more like I've got one leg shorter
And circles are all that I make
I don't break down for the healing
I don't break ground if there's nothing to hide
But I need some control 'cause digging this hole's
Taking all of my time

When I feel the pain
I just slip away, into my

Sweet salvation
Won't you take me once again?
I don't wanna feel it all
I don't wanna know what I've been thinking
Sweet salvation
Won't you lead me to the edge?
I just wanna take the fall
Seems I've run aground but I'm still sinking

I don't fight alone because I'm fearless
I don't fight alone because I'm filled with pride
Sometimes the shade gets so thick
That the hands, they can't reach you inside
I don't stand down for the kneeling
And I don't break ground if I've nothing to hide
But I need some control 'cause digging this hole's
Taking all of my time

When I feel the pain
I just slip away, into my

Sweet salvation
Won't you take me once again?
I don't wanna feel it all
I don't wanna know what I've been thinking
Sweet salvation
Won't you lead me to the edge?
I just wanna take the fall
Seems I've run aground but I'm still sinking

Sweet salvation
Won't you take me once again?
I don't wanna feel it all
I don't wanna know what I've been thinking

Sweet salvation
Won't you take me once again?
I don't wanna feel it all
I don't wanna know what I've been thinking
Sweet salvation
Won't you lead me to the edge?
I just wanna take the fall
Seems I've run aground but I'm still sinking
